

Appointed to the Los Angeles County Probation Commission by Supervisor Zev Yaroslavsky of the third district.

Commissioner Chase is a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in private practice in the San Fernando Valley. Mrs. Chase has worked with Hathaway-Sycamores Family Services for 17 years as a family therapist and mental health services supervisor, with a focus on children in foster care, teen groups and youth with special issues. Mental health screening and treatment for the youth in Los Angeles County Probation is a primary concern of Mrs. Chase.

Commissioner Chase worked with California State University Northridge as a graduate advisor in the Educational Psychology Dept., she also does volunteer work with Boys and Girls Club of San Fernando Valley and is also a licensed California Realtor.